Once there was a boy named Joseph. He was one of many children. Their father was Jacob. Their family lived in the land of Canaan ever since their great-grandfather Abraham.

Jacob loved Joseph the best of all his sons. He gave him a long coat; this showed that Joseph was to be the leader. The boy was very proud of his coat.

His brothers could see that their father loved Joseph more than any of them. They hated Joseph because of this.

Once Joseph told his brothers, " I dreamed....."
